I RAN AWAY WITH A MOTORCYCLE MOB

I wore a two-piece dress with nothing on underneath.

It was a cold, rainy night in Los Angeles when I was 17 years old. I was sitting in the back of a car, looking out the window at the city lights. I was with a group of friends, and we were all looking at each other, trying to figure out what was going on. I was wearing a two-piece dress, and I was feeling nervous. I was looking at the people in the car, and I was trying to figure out what was going on. I was looking at the people in the car, and I was trying to figure out what was going on.
